Lower Adams Joint School systems met with the county school board Wednesday evening at the Court House is one of a series of meetings planned by the county board for consideration of revisions of the county plan for school development adopted in Superintendent of Schools J.

Floyd Slaybaugh, after outhring proposed changes suggested to the county board by state Department of Public Instruction officials, said the county board plans to hold meetings with officials of all the jointures affected before "even beginning to think about any action on changing the county plan." North Adams and Fairfield jointure representatives were present at a prior meeting. Slaybaugh indicated similar sessions will be held in the near future to which representatives of the other jointures will be invited to discuss with the county board their ideas for improvements of the county

At a result of these discoveries, the National Park Service hopes to be able to have an authentic restoration of the fort in readiness for the bicentennial of the action at Fort Necessity in July, 1954.

When the present stockade of the restored fort, was constructed in 1932, surveyers and engineers followed what information was available to them, plus the contour of the ground which indicated that an almost square stockade had been constructed when Washington's men built the fort nearly 200 years ago. It was burned when Washington was forced to surrender to the

Maps Showed Square

As Dr. Tilberg explains in the article, an early map of Braddock's expedition shows Fort Necessity as a square. The survey made by Jared Sparks in 1830 also shows it to be almost a square. The Blockford survey of 1931, based on embankment and ditches which could be seen at various points, was also square. It was assumed the rest had been leveled. Digging revealed evidences of stockade posts in one corner, thus finishing off the almost square

Elmer M. Gruver, supervising principal of the Conewago jointure, and Bernard H. Anthony, president, and Richard O. Riggs, secretary of the Conewago board, were the representatives of the Lower Adams joint system.

All were agreed with a statement by Gruver that: "If the proposed redistricting of jointures in the county is consummated, state, county and local authorities are really going to be put on the spot. Adams County has for some years been considered the ideal of reorganization programming. At administrative meetings throughout the state representatives from the state Department of Public Instruction, county and district administrators always cite Adams County as the shining example of the jointure procedure. Told To Study Hard

So Jane, with trunks full of party clothes and campus clothes, was packed off to one of the nation's best colleges, the admonitions of her mother to study hard ringing in her youthful ears. Mrs. Jones couldn't wait until Thanksgiving vacation to hear about Jane's progress. She met her at the airport, and they were driving home together. Jane was strangely silent and thoughtful.

"How am I doing?" Jane finally said. "All right, I guess, but I'm pretty worried about the toothpaste survey. I think I'm stuck in the group which is using the oldfashioned toothpaste without ammoniation and chlorophyll instead of the one which is giving a 30-day test to the new miracle cleaner.

COMPOST PILE TRADEMARK OF

By RUSSELL STANTON Rutgers University

gardener is his compost pile. You have really joined the gardening fraternity when you make garden trash and autumn leaves many uses. Building and maintaining a compost pole is one way to save organic matter, important ingredient of garden soil.

A compost pile gives dividends beyond the vegetables that the garden yields. When the inevitable wastes from these go into the pile the gardener saves a good deal Partially decayed products of the compost pile make excellent mulch to hold down weeds and save moisture. After it has served its purpose as mulch it can be dug in to improve the soil. Well decayed vegetable matter from the pile can be dug into the soil at once.

How To Build Up It's a good idea to build the pile square and start throwing in any

Braves Win Again But Yanks Continue Losing Streak With 9th Straight Defeat In Shutout

By BEN PHLEGAR (AP Sportswriter)

The New York Yankees, who usually don't have to ask anybody for anything, might consider borrowing Charlie Grimm's Milwaukee textbook on "how to start winning when losing."

The Yankees go into today's game at Boston with a chance to set a new "second best" losing record for the club. Their all-time mark is 13 in 1913. The next worse is nine in 1945 and equalled by the 1953 edition in yesterday's 4-0 the season with Louisville of the defeat at the hands of the Red

Says 107 Fired By State Department

By HARRY SNYDER

WASHINGTON P - A House committee learned today tost 197 State Department employes have been fired this year as a result of investigations concerning homosexuality or questionable security. The information came from R W Scott McLeod, State Department security officer, in a letter to the House Government Operations Committee.

It was made public by Rep Brownson (R-Ind), who sought the report recently.

McLeod also said-in reply to a direct inquiry-that the department does not have any records identifying the 57 persons who were referred to by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) as Communists in a February, 1950, speech.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (P) - President Eisenhower's moderate statement about the achievements of the Republican party can be taken as a suggestion to both friends and critsee of his administration to suspend judgment awhile.

At his news conference yesterday he said the Republican party is At his news conference yesterday gradually showing its ability to assume responsibility and carry it

In using the word "gradually," he seemed to be making a frank admission that his party, in control a ball of fire.

At the same time this can be South Korea "little truce talks" interpreted as meaning he expects today. his administration to be judged more on what it does in the future than on what it has done to date.

Since so much human reaction is based on high hope or great disappointment, it is not unusual U. S. is holding out for unification for judgments to be extreme. Undoubtedly there have been extreme judgments already on the first six months of the Republican administration: that it has been wonderful or that it has been terrible.

Neither at the moment seems fair or accurate. The truth probably lies somewhere between the two extremes, which is what Eisenhower may have had in mind when he refrained from praising or criticizing what the Republican Congress has done in 1953.

Clear Picture Later

Actually, any attempt to make a fair appraisal of the success or fail- munists. ure of the Eisenhower administration will have to wait at least another year. By the time of the 1954 drag on. Rhee often has called for congressional elections the voters a 90-day deadline with the war to should have a pretty clear idea of one-year extension of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, the Senate has acted on neither. The Senate no doubt will pass the Reciprocal Trade Act but practically no one expects it to go along with the House on Hawaii statehood.

Both houses are expected to extend the excess profits tax for six months. The delay on this was due mainly to one man, a New York Republican, Chairman Daniel A. Reed of the House Ways and

Means Committee. GOP In New Role

And that will probably be all that Congress accomplishes this year. It was a Congress in which the Republicans, who had spent almost 20 years criticizing the Democrats, suddenly found themselves in the position of responsibility and, as Eisenhower pointed out, it took them time to get used

Texans Save Island As Bird Sanctuary

GALVESTON, Tex. (A) - One of few places in North America where the roseate spoonbill will nest is a small island which would have disappeared years ago had not Texans saved it.

It is Vington Island in Galveston Bay. When members of the Outdoor Nature Club of Houston discovered the exotic bird nesting on the island in 1930, they also saw that the island was eroding away. Club members planted oleanders, hackberries and other shrubs and trees to hold the soil. The plants also furnished the birds with more shade and nesting sites. Now the roseate spoonbill is often joined by Louisiana herons, blackcrowned night herons, great blue herons, snowy egrets and glossy ibis. The island has been declared a game sanctuary by the Texas legislature.

Charles Mathews, first baseman on the Michigan State baseball team, is also a member of the college Air Force ROTC rifle team.

of plant foods. Mulching the soil heavily is one of the best forms of insurance against dry weather likely to limit growth in late summer. Too, the material offers a bed on which the squashes may rest to avoid decay from direct contact with the ground. Grass clippings, immature weeds, hay, straw, shredded corn stalks, sorghum cane bagasse or other waste vegetation may be used.

SUMMER STOLE EASY TO MAKE

By DOROTHY ROE

The Associated Press Most popular accessory of the season is the stole, in every version. This is something easily made by anyone who can use needle and thread or sewing machine.

The high-fashion stole pictured. worked out by local sewing centers, is white wool jersey, decorated with fringe and tiny groups of pearls and rhinestones tacked in place to form little flower groups and outlined in metallic stitee. To make the stole, cut a straight

Thrilling FBI Program Sunday

Adams County's Only Daily Newspaper

An important meeting of the Top" Commies is scheduled and FBI Undercover Agent Matt Cvetic is given the dangerous task of wiring the meeting hall for the FBI in the "I WAS A COMMUNIST FOR THE FBI" broadcyast over station WGET at 7 p.m. Sunday. In order to gain entrance to the meeting hall, Cvetic tells his cellleader that he has discovered traces of an FBI wiring job. The leader, upon hearing this, assigns him to investigate further. Ovetic plans to install the equipment while carrying out this assignment but his plans are halted when another Communist is sent to aid him. His first attempt having failed, he then trys entering the building as night but before he is able to complete the job, his Comrade again appears, and suspecting Cvetic, calls their superior. Cvetic clears himself by saying he had returned to remove a mike which his helper had overlooked.

Then the day of the meeting arrives and Tune in WGET Sunday night at 7 o'clock and hear the climax of this thrilling episode.

Battle Story On WGET Tonight

The story of the Battle of Gettysburg, as presented on the You Were There" Columbia Broadcasting System program, a number of years ago, will be presented again this evening over WGET by transcription.

The program will begin at 8:30 o'clock this evening as part of the station's observance of the 90th anniversary of the battle. The recording recounts the battle as it would have been described had radio reporters been here with modern facilities on July 3, 1863. The station will also present a special July 4 program Satur-

by Ben Burroughs

Each year we celebrate a time ... called Independence Day ... by thanking God for freedom and ... a fireworks display ... we're grateful for our heritage . . . and everything it means . . . our industry and rolling plains . . cotted with beauteous scenes ... for some it is a time of play ... for others time to rest . . . while other folks are open to ... whatever we suggest . . . red, white and blue will decorate . . . each patriotic porch . . . and in the hearts of everyone . . . will kindle freedom's torch . . . all over this great land of ours ... people will laugh and sing . . . and drink in all the fullness that ... this holiday will bring . . . then as the sun sinks in the west . . . and day oraws to an end . . . we'll say another silent prayer ... and

MATCH PLAY AT BIRMINGHAM IS

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. E-The mam event in one of golf's finest rual PGA tournament—got under way with two nice little guys who haven't been doing too well lately at the opposite ends of the bracket.

One was bronzed Jimmy Turnesa of Briarchiff, N. Y., the defendmg champion; the other Johnny Palmer of Badın, N. C., the qualifying medalist and now co-holder of the PGA qualifying record. Between them they haven't won as much as Ben Hogan in this year's burg.

Turnesa basn't won a tournament The Schenectady Blue Jays and since last year's PGA and his "apthe Albany Senators open a five- pearance money" as champion has Palmer, a pudgy, likeable guy who celebrated his 35th birthday today, hasn't won since his record victory in the 1952 Canadian Open. He has earned about $7,000 on the tournament circuit this year, inshower-spattered evening, the sec- cluding $250 for winning the qualifying medal yesterday.

Palmer's qualifying performance was one of the finest seen in 35 years of PGA tournaments. He shot rounds of 68-55—134 over the 6,455yard Birmingham Club course on e day when strong gusty winds made good scoring difficult and when violent storms were expected any minute, but never-arrived.

That score equalled the PGA recand equalled by Skip Alexander in was slapped with his 10th loss in 1948 and the 66 matched the course record. Palmer, who moved from the caddle ranks and a soda jerkmg job mto professional golf, didn't even seem surprised. He said he drove very well and sank some Turnesa, who didn't have to qualty for match play, tried it anyway and came through with two rounds of 70 which stamped him as a serious title contender.

OLD IRONSIDES

Thanks to a succession of victorious engagements with British men-of-war, and a stirring poem by Oliver Wendell Holmes, the U.S. Frigate Constitution found an honored harbor in the hearts of Americans.

Launched in 1797, this gallant battle-wagon of the early American Navy well deserved her nick-name. Again and again she sailed in defense of Freedom; and Time alone, of all her foes, put her out of action.

We cherish Old Ironsides as a symbol of the courage that has so often preserved the liberties our forefathers purchased so dearly. And, more than ever before, we are coming to appreciate the part the Church plays in strengthening our nation-the Church which those first Americans brought to these shores that they might worship God unhindered in a free new world.

For, transcending even Time, the Church fortifies our Freedom with the Faith in which always it has flourished!

the building of character and good alternation it is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a prong Cinstell, neither democracy neperalization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should offend services requirily and support the Caurch. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) for the some of his community and nation (4) For the sote of the Course itself, which needs his more and malerial support. From to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

INDEPENDENCE DAY ...

Down through the years has come our priceless

heritage of Liberty ... so dearly won ... so gallantly defended by generations of brave Ameri-

coms. It now becomes our responsibility to protect and preserve these precious rights. To their perpetuation, let us all (in the spirit and words of the ounders) "mutually pledge to each other our
